SHOOTING INCIDENT UNDER INVESTIGATION

An investigation is underway following a shooting involving an enlisted Navy security force member assigned to the Pacific Missile Range Facility. The Sailor has been treated and released from Kauai Veteran's Memorial Hospital. He was wearing a protective vest at the time of the incident.

The Kauai Police Department offered immediate assistance in the matter, and Navy aircraft from PMRF are being used by KPD to assist in their search.

The incident did not take place on the PRMF main base, but on Navy property at an outlying location.

Agents from the Naval Criminal Investigative Service based on Oahu were flown to PMRF this afternoon to assist in the investigation.

The name of the servicemember involved has not been released.
